

SHOULD STUDENT GOVERNMENT LEADERS BE COMPENSATED?

The American Student Government Association is conducting a national study on various types of compensation paid to Student Government officers and members.

ASGA's previous research showed that 77% of elected SG leaders receive salaries, tuition, stipends, scholarship, and many other forms of remuneration.

Please complete the Student Government Salary Survey at SURVEYMONKEY.COM/R/5Q9GRK5

ASGA also stores data on every institution in America. To make sure your compensation is added to your institution's profile, complete this:

ASGAONLINE.COM/ASGA/ADD-SG-SALARY-SURVEY

Once you complete the SG Salary Survey, write info@asgaonline.com and ASGA will send you the results when complete.

If you're an ASGA member, you may find the results and previous research in the "SG Salary Survey" section at asgahome.org. Click on:

ASGAONLINE.COM/ASGA/SG-SALARY-SURVEY

THANKS FOR PARTICIPATING IN THIS NATIONAL STUDENT GOVERNMENT RESEARCH

American Student Government Association

WWW.ASGAHOME.ORG