

SEND ONE SG OFFICER OR ADVISOR TO AN ASGA CONFERENCE FOR FREE!

Never been to an ASGA training conference? Don't know what ASGA is?

This is your chance to learn about the American Student Government Association and how we can help your Student Government grow and improve. If your school has never attended an ASGA conference, send one student or advisor to one conference at no charge.* Register at asgaconferences.org and use the code "FIRSTFREE" in the "Special discounts/needs/instructions" field on the conference registration form.

30,000 student leaders and advisors have attended our 11 annual conferences to improve their Student Governments. ASGA is all about improving Student Government.

Here's what you'll learn at an ASGA Student Government conference:

- How to improve voter turnout in SG elections
- How to recruit more candidates and members
- How to increase participation in SG projects
- How to get students to care about your SG
- How to improve relations with administrators and the campus press
- How to run meetings more effectively
- How to build a team that works well together

ASGA is the nation's expert at Student Governments. We have vast resources at www.asgahome.org, including information on every student government in America.

What makes ASGA conferences the best in the nation?

1. The speakers at our conferences are paid professional presenters. They're funny, knowledgeable, interactive, and engaging.
2. The speakers are experts on Student Government, having served as SG officers and advisors.
3. ASGA is the only organization in the nation that totally focuses on student government training, research, and consulting. We're totally in touch with SG trends and issues nationwide.
4. We produce 11 events that are convenient for most colleges and universities to attend. Our events are usually over a weekend, so you won't miss school.

If you've never been to an ASGA conference before, here's your chance. Send one student or advisor for free to any ASGA conference! Register now.

**Excluding ASGA National SG Summit. This offer cannot be combined with any other special offers. Offer only valid for schools that have never attended an ASGA conference.*
