HOW CONSULTING WORKS

Consult In Person. If you need someone to run a retreat or have problems that are too large or complex to handle remotely, bring one of The SG Consulting Group partners to your campus.

Consult By Phone. All ASGA Members are guaranteed one hour of private, personal phone consultation. During this hour, you can discuss concerns, problems, or questions that are specific to your unique institution, organization, and situation. The Consultant will be well-versed on your situation and will already have considered your questions, based on the answers you gave in prior e-mail exchanges. You will receive an individually tailored reply to your questions.

Consult By E-mail. All ASGA Members may ask questions of the "Ask the Experts" panelists. Pose a question by e-mail. Then, ASGA will send the question to the panelists, who will consider your question and research your SG and your school. Our experts will either write you back personally by e-mail or answer the question for the entire membership to see (if the question is general enough to be useful to everyone).
