1	N/a	Jul 29, 2012 8:29 PM
2	Typically clubs are "rewarded" for seeking funding in multiple places, and opportunities to collaborate - club council looks upon that kindly. There is not a set amount, as it depends on what they are asking from club council.	Jul 25, 2012 4:17 PM
3	Varies by department	Jul 24, 2012 3:18 PM

Page 2, Q5. Does SGA provide funding to organizations, Club Sports, fraternities and sororities?

1	We are allocated a little over half a million dollars to allocate between SGA/CAB and all other clubs on campus. CAB usually takes half the money and the other half is allocated to all of the student clubs on campus.	Jul 29, 2012 8:29 PM
2	They only have a small discretionary fund, and that is specifically designated for "late night" funding for events that do not have alcohol involved. Club Council will help some fraternities and sororities with philanthropic events. However, club sports are currently funded through the Athletics budget.	Jul 25, 2012 4:17 PM

1	30-40	Jul 29, 2012 8:29 PM
2	In regard to the questions above, it is rare that facilities or AV are at a cost. It is kind of a case by case thing, the clubs may be responsible for these charges out of their agency accounts, as opposed to those funds provided by the college (ie Club Council) Need to research the number.	Jul 25, 2012 4:17 PM
4	50	Jul 24, 2012 11:21 AM
5	CAB is a separate entity and funds roughly 18 events a year. While each house (five total) plans a variety of events on their own. The SGA does not plan events in its own capacity unless it is for a specific grade.	Jul 23, 2012 10:45 PM
