College Democrats

Fall 2009

The ACU College Democrats is an organization dedicated to providing the students of ACU with the opportunity to voice their convictions and participate in the political process of our country. We are committed to promoting our profound belief that all Americans are equal and deserve the same rights and opportunities that are unique to our American ideology. As Christians and as Democrats, we place our moral beliefs at the center of all that we do and welcome all students who share our desire to serve.

ACU Go Club

Fall 2009

ACU Go Club is an organization formed for the purpose of educating others of and how to play the game of Go. Go was created nearly 4,000 years ago in China and is the oldest game still played in its original form. The game traveled to Japan and Korea, brought to the U.S. by the Japanese. The object of the game is to control the most territory on the 19 x 19 inch board using counters called stones (normally black and white).

Hispanos Unidos

Fall 2009

As an organization intent on discovering and glorifying the diversity in all peoples, Hispanos Unidos vows to illuminate the rich cultures of Latin America so that all may become aware of the attributes of our lands. We strive to present diversity not as a segregator but as a unifier while painting an image of what it means to be Hispanic in the United States.

Male Female Alliance

Fall 2009

The Male Female Alliance is a group of students and faculty who are committed to gender equality. Our aim is two-fold: awareness and advocacy. We are seeking to present issues, concerns, and questions about gender equality to the ACU community. We hope to give a voice to those without one, and bring marginalized groups of people into the mainstream.

Outdoor Club

Fall 2009

We are a group of students devoted to exploring and understanding God's creation and the role of humans within it. As Christians, we want to live more holistically as stewards in the areas of recreation, conservation, preservation, and natural resource use. Our mission is to promote outdoor knowledge, ethics, and service.

Seekers of the Word

Fall 2009

Seekers of the Word is a traveling Christian ministry that communicates the Gospel through the medium of drama. It is a student-run organization under the guidance of Rodney Ashlock. We write, create, and perform our own black-out skits for the many people we meet in the many places we travel. We have gone to many types of events to further the kingdom such as: youth events (i.e D-NOW's), churches

SHADES Step Team

Fall 2009

Praising God through step and dance is something that SHADES Step team has been doing for more than 10 years. As a unique multi-cultural organization on the Abilene Christian University campus, we perform together with the sole purpose of uplifting the name of God.

As a mission, we use our talents to reach out and minister to people. While stepping plays a central role in what we do, "SERVICE" is the key to our organization. The name SHADES is used because our group is comprised of many different cultures and backgrounds. SHADES promotes and represents racial and ethnic harmony among all races, nationalities and religious affiliations.

Wishing Well

Fall 2009

The goal of Wishing Well is to raise funds, using student talents and ideas, for building wells in areas around the world that lack clean water sources. Any student is welcome to participate in the organization and help with all fundraising endeavors. Wishing Well includes a Thursday small group chapel that any student may attend. As a student organization, it is student run.
