

Albany State University Dress Standard

The university dress standard is designed to provide a basic guideline for the students, faculty and staff of the institution to adhere to and strongly implement. By having these guidelines this enhances the quality of the student's life in addition to the morale of the overall University.

With this dress standard, along with proper etiquette, it insures that students, faculty and staff at Albany State University will meet the minimum provisions to help our ASU family strive in everyday life whether it is in the moral, social, physical and educational realms.

Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to dress according to the following:

Classrooms, Dining Hall, Student Union and University Offices- Modest, Casual, Neat, Business or Dressy Attire

Social/Recreational Activities, Residence Halls, Student Lounges- Trendy, Fashionable, Unrevealing attire in good taste

Examples of inappropriate attire include but are not limited to the following:

- ❖ Caps, Du Rags and Hoods in the classrooms, dining hall, or university offices including those in the student union building. (religious headwear is accepted)
- ❖ Midriiffs, mesh, netted shirts, or cut off t-shirts and undershirts in the classrooms, cafeteria, student union or offices.
- ❖ Short shorts, bare feet, and sleep wear are not permitted in any building on campus except the bedroom of your residence hall.
- ❖ Clothing with derogatory or offensive messages either in words or photos are prohibited.
- ❖ Wearing sunglasses while inside of a building other than those that are prescribed by a physician.

At the discretion of the professors, in the classroom setting, he/she has the power to deny admission into the classroom for violation of the dress standard. In addition to the professors, office staff may refuse service if attire is inappropriate as well.

The administration, faculty and staff are to strongly implement the dress standard and at the same time adhere to it in conjunction with the student body.
