

Alcohol and Drugs Policy

By maintaining an alcohol and drug free environment ACC is committed to ensuring the health and safety of its students and employees, and the protection of its property. The possession, sale or use of alcoholic beverages or illicit drugs on ACC premises is prohibited by college policy. Students who violate ACC policy or state law will be subject to disciplinary action and/or criminal prosecution.

ACC policy and state law prohibits the possession of illicit drugs and drug paraphernalia on any Austin Community College District facility, including, but not limited to, classrooms, buildings and grounds, laboratories, auditoriums, parking lots, libraries, and faculty or administrative offices.

ACC Clubs + Organizations must follow the administrative rules regarding the use of alcohol as outlined in the Student Rights and Responsibilities section of the Student Handbook.
