The Charlotte School of Law is accredited by the American Bar Association. The ABA standards can be found at http://www.americanbar.org/groups/legal\_education/resources/standards.html. If you have a complaint that involves the Law School's program of legal education and compliance with the ABA's Accreditation Standards, the complaint must identify the specific Accreditation Standard at issue.

Such complaints will be sent to the Assistant Dean for Academics who will generally acknowledge receiving the complaint within 5 working days. The Assistant Dean for Academics will relay the complaint to the administrator working most closely with the situation at the time of the acknowledgement. The administrator involved will have a resolution to the student within 10 working days of the acknowledgement. If the student is still dissatisfied after a response from that administrator, the student may appeal to the Dean of the Law School. Such appeal may be made up to 10 working days after receiving an answer from the administrator. The Dean's resolution of the matter will be final. A copy of all complaints implicating the ABA's Accreditation Standards and a summary of the resolution of each complaint shall be kept in the office of Student Services for a period of eight years from the date of final resolution.
