

Legislative Members: Class Councils

Class Councils are groups of five elected officers, which put on social, fundraising, and community service events for their individual classes. Class Councils are governed by the USGA Constitution and regularly send a representative to USGA meetings.