

1. Respectful language (no profanity).
2. Respect the Senate Space.
3. Use gender-neutral language.
4. Respect everyone's time -- enough let's move on.
5. Keep track of how debate is going.
6. Don't yuck my yum.
7. Be honest and transparent.
8. Be here on time.
9. No elections drama.
10. Serve your term (don't drop off the face of the earth for elections).
11. Maintain the buddy system, reach out before assuming.
12. Use committee.
13. Respect speakers & guests.
14. Come prepared to committee.
15. Meetings won't go past midnight
16. Share resources.
17. Take space, give space.
18. Don't be afraid of debate.
19. Don't use targeted language.
20. Check your privilege.