

Student Body Constitution

Eastern Illinois University Student Government

Fall 2004

Revised 1 September 2004

PREAMBLE

We, the students of Eastern Illinois University, desiring to maintain academic freedom, academic responsibility, student rights, and to foster the recognition of the rights and responsibilities of students to the University and Community, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution of the Student body of Eastern Illinois University. This Constitution shall supercede any Rules or Bylaws adopted by any student governing boards, except when in conflict with university, state, and federal policies.

ARTICLE I

A. Composition

The Student Government, which will consist of three branches, shall represent the student body: the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial.

ARTICLE II - Legislative Branch

A. Duties

The Legislative Branch shall consist of the Student Senate, hereafter referred to as the Senate. The main function of the Senate is to represent the Student Body of Eastern Illinois University and improve student life through the passage of bills and resolutions. The Senate shall designate rules and bylaws that it deems appropriate for the administration of the Legislative Branch, in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaws Adoption

B. Composition

The Senate shall consist of thirty Student Senators representing three districts: On-Campus, Off-Campus, and At-Large. A Senator must be eligible in the district he or she represents throughout the full term of office, have a cumulative 2.25 GPA, and be a student in good disciplinary standing with the University. In the case of the on-campus and off-campus districts, a Senator need not live in the appropriate district until the second regular meeting. The Student Senate Bylaws in accordance with Article IX shall determine other eligibility requirements: Rules and Bylaws Adoption.

C. Meetings

Regular meetings of the Senate shall be held at least once per week during the fall and spring semesters, at the discretion of the Speaker of the Senate. Special Meetings shall be convened by the Student body President or the Speaker of the Student Senate in accordance with public law. A quorum shall be defined in the Student Senate bylaws in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaws Adoption. All meetings shall be open to the public except when closed by two-thirds majority vote of the membership and in accordance with public law.-

Meetings shall be presided over by the Speaker of the Student Senate and shall be governed by this Constitution and all Rules or Bylaws adopted in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaws Adoption.

D. Responsibilities

The Senate shall act as the representative voice of the Student Body. The Senate shall approve all student appointments, including appointments to student/faculty boards, committees, councils, the Student Supreme Court, University and Housing Judicial Boards, and University Board Chair all by two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate. In addition, the Senate shall approve all Student Government Budgets by majority vote of the membership of the Senate.

The Student Senate shall recommend passage or failure of all tuition and fee increase proposals.

In the allocation of Student Activity Fees, the Senate shall determine the amount and usage of student fee money as well as approve or reject all budget recommendations made by the Apportionment Board by a majority vote.

The Senate shall elect a Speaker a minimum of once per semester. The Speaker may attend all Executive meetings. The Speaker shall be a full-time student. The eligibility requirements and duties of the Student Senate Speaker shall be governed by Rules or Bylaws adopted in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaws Adoption. The Speaker shall be responsible for maintaining the records of the Legislative Branch.

E. Removal

The Senate is empowered to remove any Student body Executive Officer, Student Supreme Court Justice, University Judicial Board member, University Board Chairperson, and University Board Vice Chairperson for violating the Student Body Constitution, the Rules, or the Bylaws of said body. Removal shall be by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate. The Senate is also empowered to remove from office any student member on student/faculty boards and councils and Student Government agencies after recommendations by the chairperson of the organization or by the Student Body President. The party in question must be notified by registered United States Mail no less than 48 hours prior to the consideration of said removal by the Student Senate. Procedure for removal shall be defined in Rules or Bylaws in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaws Adoption. The removed party may appeal to the Student Supreme Court, who may overturn the decision of the Senate only when the removal process is conducted in violation of section E.

F. Recall

Any elected official, including Student Body Executive Officers or Student Senators, shall be removed from office following a two thirds majority vote of those students voting in a recall referendum called at the demand of 5% of the student body. Procedure for a recall shall be defined in Rules or Bylaws in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaws Adoption.

ARTICLE III - Executive Branch

A. Duties

The Executive Branch shall exercise administrative and managerial power over the programs and policies created by the Student Government.

Executive Officers shall be required to attend all Student Government Meetings. An accumulation of three (3) absences per semester will be grounds for impeachment. Absences shall be defined as a failure to respond to the initial roll call within fifteen minutes or the Adjournment roll call.

B. Compensation

Executive officers may be compensated by an amount that shall not exceed the maximum full-time tuition costs. The Student Senate shall develop Rules or Bylaws in accordance with Article IX: Rules and Bylaw Adoption, that shall indicate the amount of the compensation, the procedures for compensation, the type of compensation, and the procedures for compensation in the case that an executive officer is removed and/or resigns from office. Changes in the amount of compensation shall not affect student body executive officers until the next regular election of student body executives.

C. Evaluation, Review, and Final Report

For each executive position, an evaluation session shall be held three (3) weeks prior to the conclusion of the fall semester. The purpose of this session will be for administration, faculty, staff, and students to evaluate the performance of each executive board member and outline goals for the future. These sessions and all related materials shall be made open and available to the public.

Each Executive shall submit a final report to Student Government archives.

D. Executive Branch Meetings and Rules of the Executive Branch

The Executive Branch shall meet at least twice per month at the discretion of the Student Body President. Meetings shall be presided over by the Student Body President. Executive Branch meetings shall be open in accordance with public law. The Executive Branch may not adopt rules unless a quorum of three (3) executives is present.

The Executive Branch shall have to adopt rules deemed necessary or convenient for the execution of its business. Executive Rules shall be adopted in a senate bill form by a majority vote of the membership of the executive branch, pending approval by a majority of the membership of the Senate. The Senate may not amend the proposed rule. These Rules shall govern only the executive branch of the Student Government, unless otherwise specified in this Constitution. Rules adopted shall not conflict with the Student Body Constitution, University policy, or public law.

E. Composition

The Student Body President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Student Body. The other Student Body Executive Officers shall be the Student Body Vice President for Academic Affairs,

Student Body Vice President for Business Affairs, Student Body Executive Vice President, and Student Body Vice President for Student Affairs. A Student Body Executive Officer must be a full-time student (12 semester hours for undergraduate students and 9 semester hours for graduate students for the entire spring and fall semester) have a cumulative 2.25 GPA, and be in good disciplinary standing with the University.

The line of succession to the Presidency shall be defined as the following: Executive Vice President, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Vice President for Student Affairs, Vice President for Business Affairs, and Speaker of the Student Senate. In the event that a resignation or removal occurs in the office of student body president, his/her successor (the Executive Vice President) shall retain the position of student trustee.

In the case of a vacancy in any Student Body Executive Office other than the Student Body President, the President shall fill said vacancy by appointment, subject to approval by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate. This appointment will be temporary. If a vacancy occurs five weeks after the beginning of the spring semester, the President's appointment shall remain in office until the regular spring election. During the term of vacancy, a special election will be held to fill the remainder of the term. Procedures for conducting a special election shall be defined by the Senate.
