SEPTEMBER 1, 2006
THE FIRST REPORT

STUGO
 Executive Report

Student Government, or StuGo as I have been in the habit of saying, is a unique thing. To tell you the truth, I haven't quite figured it all out. How was this group called Student Government designed to work together? What does the job of a Student Body President really entail? As I have thought through this quandary, I've come to discover that my job as President is in part to facilitate, in part to communicate, and in part to represent the student body. I have received counsel to focus on two or three things and push them hard. While I can't give you one specific thing, like "keeping the SAGA line shorter at lunch" or "promoting dollar-latte night," I will commit to working non-stop this year for your benefit. Whether that be in representing you to Dr. Austin, or helping to communicate what YAC, LSM, and Senate are planning, or helping connect a great idea with the right people, or even serving in the name of Jesus Christ within the community. You can rest assured that I will seek out every opportunity to impact lives on this campus, in this community, and throughout the world.

I will also challenge you in different ways. During this month of September, I challenge you to know it. Know who God has made you to be! Know that Longview, Texas is a city that needs love. Know that LeTourneau University has a distinct purpose of service in this community. Know that Ethiopia, like many other countries, is in desperate need of our prayers, support, and even projects. Know that the ingenuity on this campus is unique, and it gives me great joy to see minds put into action. Know that you can make a difference in this world. Know it. Love it. Do it.

Jordan Callaway, the Student Body President, is studying both Accounting and History/Political Science. Student Government just finished painting the StuGo office. Come check it out! (In Student Services)
