- F. If a senator objects to a guest being recognized, the guest shall not be recognized unless a majority of those senators present vote to allow the guest to speak.

SEC. 18. VOTING RULES --- THE FOLLOWING RULES CONCERNING VOTING ARE ADOPTED FOR USE BY THE ASMSU-BILLINGS SENATE.

- A. In order to vote and conduct official Senate business, at least two-thirds (2/3) of the current members of Senate must be present at that meeting (does not include vacant Senate positions).

- B. In cases of extreme urgency, the Chair may conduct a meeting without two-thirds (2/3) of the members present. Any actions taken must be ratified at the next legal meeting. An action undertaken, however, which breaks the faith or inflicts injury by repealing or rescinding is illegal.
- C. Should a meeting start with two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and then drop below two-thirds (2/3), discussion may continue but no vote can be taken.
- D. Voting in Absentia
 - 1. A senator may cast his/her vote on any upcoming issue or item of legislation by voting in absentia. The vote must be presented to the ASMSU-B Vice President or office manager ahead of the time of the meeting.
 - 2. If the issue or item of legislation is amended or altered in any way, the vote in absentia becomes invalid.
 - 3. A senator shall use the formal absentee ballot form at the end of this By-Law (Appendix F) to vote in absentia.
 - 4. Voting in Absentia does not count as being present at the meeting.

E. Voting by Proxy

1. A senator may authorize another senator to vote in his or her place on any matter before the Senate. Proxies may be designated as follows:
 - a. Physical presentation of the proxy form to the ASMSU-B Vice President prior to the meeting.
 - b. Presentation of the proxy form to the office manager prior to the meeting.
 - c. By fax, letter, or phone communication in the instance that the designator is not personally present to submit the proxy.
 - d. By signing a proxy form during a meeting in the event a senator must depart the meeting but still wishes the privilege of a vote.
2. A proxy does not count as being “present” for the absent senator.
3. A proxy shall be submitted during the roll call of the Senate.
4. If the designation of a proxy takes place during the Senate meeting, the senator with whom the proxy rests shall announce that fact at his/her first opportunity. This shall take precedence over other Senate business.

5. Proxy votes shall not be considered in the determination of the two-thirds (2/3) senators needed present at a Senate meeting.
6. No senator shall hold more than one proxy.
7. The official proxy form shall be used (Appendix E) except in the case of 1-c above.

F. Defining the Vote Margin

1. Financial Bills – all financial bills will require a majority vote of the senators voting at the meeting. Voting on financial bills must be taken by written ballot.
2. A veto override shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those senators present at the time of the meeting. A veto override vote will be done by written ballot.
3. An impeachment vote requires a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the duly elected senators.
4. All other issues shall be decided based upon a majority vote.

G. Taking the Vote

1. Voting by Silent Assent – This may be done on issues of which there is little potential for disagreement. The Chairperson says, "If there are no objections, we will consider this matter approved." If there are objections, a formal vote must take place.

2. Formal votes shall be done by roll call vote unless a majority of the Senate requests a written or voice vote. Each senator's name will be called, at which time the senator shall respond "aye" or "no" to the motion. If a senator wishes to abstain from voting, he/she may answer "present."
3. Prior to announcing the outcome of the vote, the Chairperson shall announce, "Has any member not voted? Does any member wish to change his/her vote? The votes will be recorded."
4. Senators must sign their ballots.

H. After the Vote

1. After the vote has been recorded, the Chair announces the result.
2. Every senator shall be given the right of explanation of his/her vote after the outcome has been announced. No senator is or can be required to explain his/her vote at any time. Rights of explanation shall not exceed three (3) minutes and any senator shall further be permitted to have his/her written explanation, not to exceed fifty (50) words, included in the official Senate minutes.

3. If the Chairperson or any member questions a vote, he/she may demand a recount. If there is further dispute, a roll call vote may be used or new ballots distributed.
4. Any member may request that his/her vote be changed if a majority of the body yields.
5. The office manager shall keep a written record of the senators' votes. The general student population may view the results of each individual senator's vote on an issue.

SEC. 19. PROCEDURE FOR PASSAGE OF LEGISLATION, FINANCIAL BILLS, RESOLUTIONS OR MEMORIALS

- A. Senators must submit proposed legislation, in writing, to the Vice-President or office manager. This should be done at least two (2) days before the Senate meeting to allow time for the legislation to be placed on the agenda under New Business.
- B. The sponsoring senator shall read the proposed legislation for the first time at the next Senate meeting and the Vice President will refer the proposed legislation to the proper committee.
- C. The committee shall study, and if necessary, propose amendments to the legislation. If the bill referred to the committee may have a fiscal impact, the committee shall request the presence of the ASMSU-Billings office manager or other relevant person to comment on that impact.

- D. The legislation shall come before the Senate under Old Business for a final vote unless the committee chooses to table the legislation.
- E. Upon passage by the Senate, all legislation shall be sent to the ASMSU-Billings President for approval or veto.
- F. All legislation remaining in committee at the close of spring semester shall be referred to the Summer Senate.

SEC. 20. SUMMER SENATE

- A. The ASMSU-Billings Senate shall, during spring semester, appoint up to eight (8), but no less than four (4) students to serve as summer senators from the fifteen (15) senators elected during the spring election. If there are not eight (8) who can serve, students-at-large shall be selected to serve only for the summer. Students-at-large selected to serve shall meet the same qualifications as regular senators.
- B. The ASMSU-B Vice President shall chair the Summer Senate unless he/she chooses to delegate this position to another Executive Committee member.
- C. Summer Senate shall have authority to conduct all business occurring during the summer.
- D. Summer Senate shall abide by the ASMSU-Billings Constitution, By-Laws and policies.

- E. Executive Committee – during the summer, all members of the Executive Committee will perform their regular duties as set out in the ASMSU-Billings By-Laws and Constitution.
- F. Summer Senate Advisors – shall be appointed at the discretion of the ASMSU-B President.
- G. The term of office for Summer Senate begins the day after spring semester ends and ends on the first day of fall semester.
- H. The meeting time and place will be determined by the Chair.
- I. All unfinished business at the close of Summer Senate shall be referred to the regular year Senate.
- J. All unfinished business at the close of spring semester shall be referred to Summer Senate.

SEC. 24. PROCESS FOR REMOVAL OF THE ASMSU-BILLINGS BUSINESS MANAGER, STUDENT RESOLUTION OFFICER, POLITICAL ACTION DIRECTOR, SUSTAINABILITY CORR DINATOR, OR HISTORIAN.

- A. The individual shall first be given one warning letter by the ASMSU-B President. The letter must be dated and list the reasons for the warning letter.
- B. If the individual does not rectify his/her actions, the ASMSU-B President shall present him/her with a termination letter. The letter will be dated and reaffirm the reasons for the dismissal.
- C. Upon receipt of the termination letter, the individual must vacate his/her office. From the date forward on the termination letter, the individual shall no longer receive his/her stipend.

- D. Upon receipt of the termination letter, the individual shall have five (5) working days to file a letter contesting his/her removal from office. The letter must be dated and filed with the ASMSU-B office manager. The letter must contain the grounds of his/her defense.
- E. Within three (3) working days of the receipt of the letter by the office manager, the ASMSU-B Vice President shall form a committee of five (5) members of the Student Senate to hear the appeal of the dismissed individual.
- F. The five (5) Student Senators shall elect a committee chairperson from among their group to facilitate their meeting. This committee must hear the appeal and make its recommendation to the ASMSU-B President within five (5) working days of the hearing. The meeting shall be open to the public.
- G. Upon receipt of the recommendation from the committee, the ASMSU-B President shall make a final decision whether to reinstate or dismiss the individual. The ASMSU-B President must make his/her decision by the second (2nd) Senate meeting following his/her receipt of the committee recommendations. If the ASMSU-B President chooses not to follow the committee's recommendations, he/she must make the reasons public at the next Senate meeting.

- H. Any of the above officers who feel they cannot fulfill their duties of office shall submit a written resignation to the ASMSU-B President.

SEC. 25. IMPEACHMENT PROCESS

- A. The Senate may impeach the ASMSU-B President, Vice President, or a Student Senator by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Student Senate.
- B. Cases of impeachment shall be heard by the Supreme Court, excluding those cases of impeachment of Justices, which will be heard and decided by the Senate.
- C. If the Supreme Court or Senate sustains the impeachment charges, the member's term of office shall terminate immediately.

SEC. 26. VACANCIES

- A. Resignation or removal from office shall be placed on the Senate agenda.
- B. Should the position of ASMSU-Billings President become vacant, the ASMSU-Billings Vice President shall become acting President for the remainder of the academic year.
- C. Should the position of ASMSU-Billings Vice President become vacant, the position shall be filled by a current Student Senator.

1. All volunteering senators wishing to be considered for this position will be placed on the Senate agenda.
 2. One Senator shall be selected by a majority of senators casting a vote (including proxies and absentees) to serve as ASMSU Billings Vice President for the remainder of the academic year.
 3. The Senator selected must meet the requirements for this position.
 4. If more than three (3) candidates apply, the President will narrow down the number of candidates to three (3) to be voted on by Senate. If a majority is not reached on the first vote, there will be a run off of the two (2) candidates who received the most votes. In the event of any tie, the President will serve as the tie breaker.
- D. Should the following positions become vacant, the ASMSU-B President shall appoint a student that meets the requirements for the open position:
- ASMSU-B Business Manager
 - ASMSU-B Student Resolution Officer
 - ASMSU-B Political Action Director

ARTICLE 4.

ASMSU-BILLINGS FINANCIAL POLICY

GENERAL FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 1. The Associated Student Fee is the fee paid by all registered students of Montana State University-Billings for the financing of student activity areas as approved by the Board of Regents.

SEC. 2. The authority for handling funds is recorded in the ASMSU-Billings Constitution under article 7.

SEC. 3. The general policies regarding the use of student fee money is recorded in the ASMSU-Billings Constitution under Article 7.

SEC. 4 Financial Regulations

A. All student funds, those allocated or revenue made from student funds, shall be held in a student-controlled Montana State University-Billings account.

B. These funds cannot be allocated to an academic, administrative or athletic department of the University.

C. All organizations requesting funds must be registered with the Student Union and Activities

Office and be recognized by the ASMSU-Billings Senate.

- D. All funds requested from the ASMSU-B Contingency Fund and the ASMSU-B Activities Contingency Fund shall be requested PRIOR to the activity, project, or travel for which said funds are being requested.
- E. Prepayment for any items such as conference registration fees and plane tickets has no bearing on one actually receiving funds. Purchaser is still responsible for the purchases should Contingency funds not be awarded.
- F. Requests made PRIOR to the event must be approved by a simple majority vote of the ASMSU-Billings Senate.

- G. Requests for AFTER-THE-FACT FUNDING shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the full Senate. The use of proxies by Senate members shall be allowed in the vote.
- H. There shall be no pre-allocation of student fees for future years, either as a percentage of total dollars or an actual dollar amount.
- I. Academic year budgets shall be completed no later than the second to last week of spring semester of each year. Summer session budgets shall be completed no later than the second to last week of fall semester.
- J. All budgeted events through ASMSU-Billings shall display the following notice in advertisements and programs: "This event was made possible in total (or in part) by student fees allocated by the ASMSU-Billings Senate."
- K. All financial bills shall be referred to the Financial Board and remain in committee for a period of at least three (3) weeks. Due to time constraints that require a financial bill to be passed in less than three (3) weeks, a motion can be made on the senate floor when the financial bill is read in for approval for a turnaround time of no less than one (1) week. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the senate is required.

- L. Requests to expend student funds must be initiated by the account's fund controller.
- M. Funding is allocated on a yearly basis through the regular budget hearing process of the ASMSU-Billings student government. Funds are not guaranteed and the responsibility rests with the organization requesting funds to meet all deadlines and responsibilities.
- N. Funds shall be accounted for in the manner prescribed by the ASMSU-Billings Senate and in accordance with Montana State University-Billings financial policies.
- O. The MSU-Billings fiscal year ends on June 30th. Every attempt should be made to have academic year expenses paid by this date. Money may be expended from summer budgets until all bills incurred during the summer have been paid.
- P. Each fund controller shall limit his/her expenditures to line item totals and total amounts budgeted or approved by the Senate.
- Q. ASMSU-Billings shall not assume responsibility for deficits incurred as a result of deficiencies in self-generated revenues or fiscal irresponsibility.
- R. Prior to receiving any funds, fund controllers should receive a copy of the ASMSU-Billings Financial Policy.

- S. Fund controllers may shift up to ten (10) percent of any line item within their budget to another line item within their budget.
- T. All budgeted money remaining in the accounts at the end of the fiscal year (other than excess revenue) shall be returned to the ASMSU-Billings Contingency Fund.

SEC. 5. Student Government Fiscal Authority

- A. The Student Government will have authority over all student funds to investigate, to oversee and allocate these funds.
- B. The Student Government shall have access to pertinent financial information regarding any funded area.

SEC. 6. Budgeted accounts shall be defined as those entities funded by ASMSU-Billings through their budgeting process, on a regular yearly basis.

SEC. 7. Non-budgeted accounts (including individuals, clubs, teams, organizations, and groups) shall be defined as entities that are not included in the regular budgeting process of ASMSU-Billings. These areas may come to Senate to request special appropriation from the ASMSU-Billings Contingency Fund.

SEC. 8. The General Fund shall be derived from the total monies collected from the Associated Student fees.

The General Fund shall be divided into the Budgeted Fund and the Contingency Fund.

A. The Budgeted Fund

1. Academic year allocations shall normally not exceed the total amount of Associated Student fees collected (as determined by the MSU-Billings Business office) for the previous year.
2. In the event Student Senate determines that they have valid requests for funds exceeding the previous year's collections, they may, by separate resolution, and by a simple majority of the votes cast by Senate, agree to exceed the previous year's collections by an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of said previous year's collections, should such monies be available in the Contingency Fund.
3. Final allocation of ASMSU-Billings funds shall be determined by a simple majority vote of the Student Senate after receiving recommendations from its Financial Board.

B. Summer Session Budget

1. Summer Session allocations shall normally not exceed the total amount of Associated Student fees collected (as determined by the MSU-Billings Billings Business Office) for the previous summer.

2. In the event Student Senate determines that they have valid requests for funds exceeding the previous summer's collections, they may, by separate resolution, approved by a simple majority of the votes cast by Senate, agree to exceed the previous summer's collections by an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of said previous summer's collections, should such monies be available in the Contingency Fund.

C. The Contingency Fund

1. The Contingency Fund shall be derived from monies in the General Fund, which have not been spent or budgeted. Special allocations may be made directly from the Contingency Fund to special or budgeted accounts for projects such as leadership activities, educational programs, conferences, or events that benefit the Montana State University Billings student community or items not included in the regular budgeted fund. In no event may the combined total of these special allocations exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the balance of the Contingency Fund as of September 1st each year (as determined by the University Business Office).
 - a. In order for a budgeted or non-budgeted area to receive a special appropriation from the ASMSU-Billings

Contingency Fund, one of the following criteria must be met:

Be a student organization registered with the office of Student Union and Activities.

Be a service provided directly by ASMSU-Billings.

Be a student registered at Montana State University Billings for seven (7) or more credits.

- b. Requesters of Contingency Funds should demonstrate to the Student Senate that they have made reasonable efforts to finance their project or program from other revenue sources before requesting funds from Student Senate. Requesters must demonstrate the value of their particular project or program to the Associated Students of Montana State University-Billings.
- c. Upon completion of any project funded with Contingency money, a written and oral report regarding the actual expenditure of said funds must be completed and forwarded to the ASMSU-Billings Senate. This report should be completed no later than two (2) weeks after the completion of the project. Failure to comply will jeopardize future funding.

- d. Allocations from this fund shall be only by special appropriation in the form of either a grant or a loan except for the regular budgeting process. The Senate, upon recommendation by the Financial Board, shall determine the terms and conditions of such a grant or loan.
- e. Each request for Contingency funds must be done through on the appropriate forms, which shall include an itemized budget and a narrative justification.
- f. Contingency requests must be submitted to the Senate through the ASMSU-Billings office manager at least three (3) weeks before an actual vote of the Senate, unless Senate, by a majority vote, allows late entrance.
- g. Any unused funds allocated from the Contingency account shall revert back to the Contingency account upon completion of that particular project.

SEC. 9. Travel Policy

- A. In order to be funded, the purpose of the travel must first meet the established principles of allocation as set by MSU-Billings, and then correspond with one of the following prioritized standards.

1. The travel is required for the performance of duties of an elected or appointed office of ASMSU-Billings student government or services.
2. The travel shall provide the benefit of leadership or organizational training, contacts, or information which shall improve the performance of an individual serving in an elected or appointed position of ASMSU-Billings student government or services.
3. The travel shall allow either the presentation of an academic paper or work by a MSU-Billings student or the information and education of MSU-Billings students concerning matters of importance and access to the general student populace of MSU-Billings.
4. The travel shall allow the representation of the student body of MSU-Billings, the MSU-Billings campus, or the community through the presentation of an original work or by service on a board or panel.
5. In requesting travel funds, the group, organization, or individual is required to spend approximately 30% of the total budget for the trip out of their personal or club account.

SEC. 10. Budget Amendments

- A. In any case of internal budget transfers in excess of ten (10) percent of the originally allocated line item, fund controllers must sign and present amendments to Student Senate for referral to the Financial Board for consideration and recommendation to the Student Senate, and subsequent approval by the Student Senate.

- B. The following procedure shall be followed in submitting budget amendments:
 - 1. Fund controller prepares a budget amendment and forwards it to the ASMSU-Billings office manager, who shall place it on the agenda to be presented to the Student Senate. Senate shall refer the amendment to the Financial Board.

 - 2. The amendment is presented at the next meeting of the Financial Board for discussion. It is recommended that the fund controller be present.

 - 3. A recommendation is prepared for presentation to Senate and must pass Senate by a majority vote of the votes cast at the meeting.

 - 4. The ASMSU-Billings office manager shall forward the decision of the Senate to the fund controller.

5. If approved by the Senate, the amendment shall be forwarded to the MSU-Billings Business Office for inclusion in the accounting records.

SEC. 11. Audit of Student Accounts

- A. The purpose of a Financial Board audit is to investigate the operations of any student activity account of ASMSU-Billings.

1. Procedures for Audit

- a. An audit shall be called when requested, in writing, to the Financial Board by at least two (2) senators, or by a petition of fifty (50) enrolled students. A narrative justification for the audit must accompany all requests.
- b. The Financial Board shall request through the Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs, that the MSU-Billings Business Office perform an audit.
- c. The Financial Board shall submit a report to the Senate no later than two (2) weeks after completion of the audit.

2. The chairperson shall assume duties on the first day after the end of Spring semester and follow all duties and responsibilities as outlined in the ASMSU-Billings By-laws.

B. Criteria/Qualifications for Membership

All members shall at the time of their selection and throughout their term of office, be in good academic standing with the University as defined by the Student Affairs Handbook. This is defined as maintaining a 2.0 GPA on a 4.0 GPA scale.

C. Membership Selection Process

1. The selection of membership will occur each year before the first week of April by an application and interview process. The selection committee shall consist of the Chairperson-elect, and three (3) current SAB members who are not applying for a position for the coming year. The advisors will serve as a non-voting member of the selection committee. No more than eighteen(18) student-at-large positions will be selected during this time. In the event that all eighteen(18) positions are not filled, the remaining will be filled in the fall by application and interview process. Members who are selected through this application and interview process are eligible to remain involved in the organization for the year as long as they continue to meet the qualifications for membership. All members must be re-selected each year through the application process.

2. All students wishing to become members of the SAB must submit an application for membership prior to the scheduled deadline and interview process timeline.

All selections will be based on the applicant's experience, enthusiasm, creativity, ability to communicate, past performance on SAB or other student organizations, and ability to work with others.

3. New members of the Board selected during April will be ex-officio members through the remainder of spring semester and officially assume their duties beginning fall semester.
4. The two(2) freshman members of the Board will be selected within the first thirty (30) days of the fall semester by the same application and interview process. The selection committee will consist of:
The Chairperson, three (3) current SAB members, and the non-voting advisors.
5. Any vacancies that occur throughout the school year will be filled by the Chairperson. The position shall be filled within three (3) weeks of the resignation or termination. These appointments must receive 2/3 approval by the membership of the Board.

SEC. 4. MEMBERSHIP DUTIES/REQUIREMENTS

A. Members must attend all SAB events unless they have been granted an excused absence by the SAB Chair prior to the event. Excused absences include: school or class commitments, work in specific cases where they are unable to obtain time off, and family or personal emergencies. An excess number of excused absences may result in removal if the individual is unable to maintain regular involvement in programs and activities sponsored by SAB.

1. Members must attend weekly meetings and participate in planning events. Members may be excused from a meeting for the same reasons listed above. Members must also attend special event planning or committee meetings as needed.
2. Members must perform all duties associated with event planning. Duties and committee chairs/assignments will be determined at weekly meetings. The duties may include: contacting agents and following through with contract details, promotion and marketing, facility set-up and tear down of events, event management, and more.

3. Special meetings can be called by the Chair as needed for event planning and committee meetings.

B. Method of Conducting Meetings

1. Meetings are conducted by the Chair
2. All members present may vote except the Chair.
3. The Chair can vote to break tie.

C. Voting

1. All members shall have a vote on decisions or issues before the Board.
2. The quorum shall consist of 2/3 of the voting members.
3. The advisor shall serve with voice only.
4. All event programs shall be determined with 2/3 majority of membership.

D. Evaluations

1. At the end of each semester, each Board member will receive oral/written evaluation of his/her performance.
2. The evaluation will consist of an overview of all facets of the Board members' duties during the semester; attendance at meetings and events; overall productivity; effective use of office hours; cooperation with other Board members; productivity during events (i.e. set-up and tear down); overall attitude; and general comments.
3. The Chairperson shall:
4. Make a written evaluation for each member.
5. Shall review the evaluation with the respective member upon completion of the written evaluation.
6. Ask the board member for his/her signature on the evaluation to signify the Board member has seen and understands what the evaluation entails.
7. The board member will be allowed to make a written statement on the evaluation before signing.
8. Once the member has signed the evaluation, the Chairperson shall sign and date the evaluation and place it in the member's private file.

9. Evaluations of the Board members shall not be shown to anyone except the Chairperson, the respective Board members, the advisors, and the selection committee only on the day of the interviews and only if the Board member is reapplying.

E. Chairperson Evaluation

1. The chairperson will be evaluated by having each member complete an evaluation form that has been developed by the Board and the Advisor.
2. The advisor will compile the results of the completed evaluations and meet with the chairperson to discuss the results.
3. The chairperson will discuss the evaluation with the board members and present any changes or improvements that will be made based on evaluation.

F. Event Evaluations

The Board will also complete an evaluation of each event that is held and discuss any changes or improvements that need to be made in the overall performance of the board at meetings and retreats as needed.

SEC. 7.RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

- A. Any Board member who misses a total of three (3) unexcused weekly meetings and/or board events will be dismissed from the board.
- B. Any member who finds that circumstances or obligations necessitate his/her absence from the meetings of the board for an indefinite period of time shall submit a written resignation to the Chairperson of SAB.
- C. SAB members reserve the right to remove active members for conduct that is contrary to the MSU-Billings Student Handbook Part II. Removal shall be based on simple majority vote of active members.
- D. In the event of the resignation of the Chairperson, the membership of the Student Activities Board shall appoint a replacement from the current Board membership through a majority vote.

SEC. 8. REMOVAL OF THE CHAIRPERSON

- A. The Student Activities Board may remove the Chairperson by a 3/4 majority vote of the entire board membership.
- B. The Chairperson can appeal the removal from office to the ASMSU-

Billings Supreme Court in accordance with Article 1, Section 22.

SEC. 9. FINANCES

- A. The Chairperson is responsible for the overall fiscal operation and budget of the SAB.
- B. The Chair and Advisor serve as two (2) of the fund controllers for SAB.
- C. The Chair is responsible for presenting monthly budget reports to the SAB.

SEC. 1 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBER

- A. All Executive Committee members shall be responsible for following the ASMSU-B By-Laws.
- B. The ASMSU-B President shall call a meeting of the Executive Committee no later than the second (2nd) week of when classes start.
- C. The Co-Chairperson of the Executive Committee shall be the ASMSU-B Vice President. The Co-Chairperson shall conduct Committee meetings in the absence of the ASMSU-B President.
- D. The ASMSU-B President shall be responsible for setting meeting times and notifying the Executive Committee members of the scheduled meeting time.
- E. The Executive Committee should meet on a bi-weekly basis. If meetings are held on a less frequent basis, it shall be by a majority agreement of the Committee members.

SEC. 2. GROUNDS FOR AND PROCEDURES FOR IMPEACHMENT AND/OR REMOVAL OF AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBER

- A. Failure to fulfill his/her duties or violation of the ASMSU-B Constitution or its By-Laws.
- B. Conduct in a manner that reflects unfavorably on the University or Student Government.
- C. Absence a combined total of four (4) times from Senate meetings or meetings of his/her respective committee. Executive Cabinet members must perform a minimum of 15 hours of service during each pay period in order to receive their stipend. Additionally, all Executive Cabinet members are required to submit work hours to the ASMSUB President weekly.
- D. The ASMSU-B President shall give Executive members one warning letter. The letter must be dated and list the reasons for the warning letter.
- E. If the Executive member does not rectify his/her actions, the ASMSU-B President shall give the Executive member a termination letter. The letter must be dated and reaffirm the reasons for the dismissal.
- F. Upon receipt of the termination letter, the Executive member must vacate his/her office. From the date forward on the termination letter, the Executive member shall no longer receive his/her stipend.

- G. Upon receipt of the termination letter, the Executive member shall have five (5) working days to file a letter contesting his/her removal from office. The letter must be dated and filed with the ASMSU-B office manager. The letter must contain the grounds of his/her defense.
- H. Within three (3) working days of the receipt of the letter by the office manager, the ASMSU-B Vice President shall form a committee of five (5) members of the Student Senate to hear the appeal of the dismissed Executive member.
- I. The five (5) Student Senators shall elect a committee chairperson from among their group to facilitate their meeting. This committee must hear the appeal and make its recommendation to the ASMSU-B President within five (5) working days of the hearing. The meeting shall be open to the public.
- J. Upon receipt of the recommendation from the committee, the ASMSU-B President shall make a final decision whether to reinstate the Executive member or to dismiss the Executive member. The ASMSU-B President shall make his/her decision by the second (2nd) Senate meeting following his/her receipt of the committee recommendations. If the ASMSU-B President chooses not to follow the committee's recommendations, he/she shall make the reasons public at the next Senate meeting.
