

Park University
Student Conduct Code
Effective: July 1, 2008

As a student at Park University, you should be aware of the rights you have as a student and of the responsibilities associated with being a Park student. These policies apply to ALL Park University students, regardless of whether the student is taking classes online, at a Campus Center, or on the Parkville campus – all delivery modes and all locations. The Student Code of Conduct is based on respect for self and others, and was developed to challenge students to embrace high ethical standards, and interact with other students, faculty, and staff with integrity.

Core Values of Park University:

- Commitment to commonalities and differences
- Commitment to community among all peoples of the world
- Commitment to lifelong learning

As a student, you have the right to an opportunity to learn in an environment that is free from discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status. It is the responsibility of all members of the Park University community – students, faculty, and staff – to create and maintain an environment where all persons are treated with respect, dignity, and fairness. Students have responsibility for assuming the consequences of their actions. Students are expected to accept their obligations to the entire Park community to honor and respect the value and integrity of each person and to conduct themselves accordingly. In addition, students are responsible for making themselves aware of Park University policies and procedures, all of which are outlined in the Catalog, in the Student Handbook/Planner, and/or on the Park University website: www.park.edu/policies.

The mission of Park University, an entrepreneurial institution of learning, is to provide access to academic excellence which will prepare learners to think critically, communicate effectively, and engage in lifelong learning while serving a global community. In order to maintain an environment where this mission can be achieved effectively and equitably, Park University promotes civility, respect, and integrity among all members of the community. Choosing to be a member of the Park University community obligates each member to follow these standards and ensures that a campus community of civility is maintained. In that light, the Student Code of Conduct will follow established processes for insuring fundamental fairness and an educational experience that facilitates the development of the individual and/or group.

2. Other than University expulsion or revocation or withholding of a degree, disciplinary sanctions shall not be made part of the student's permanent academic record, but shall become part of the student's disciplinary record. Upon graduation, the student's disciplinary record may be expunged of disciplinary actions other than residence hall expulsion, University suspension, University expulsion, or revocation or withholding of a degree, upon application to the Dean of Student Life. 3. In situations involving both an Accused Student(s) and a Student(s) claiming to be the victim of another Student's conduct, the records of the process and of the sanctions imposed, if any, shall be considered to be the educational records of both the Accused Student(s) and the Student(s) claiming to be the victim because the educational career and chances of success in the academic community of each may be impacted.

In cases in which persons other than, or in addition to, the Dean of Student Life, has been authorized to serve as the Student Conduct Board, the recommendation of the Student Conduct Board shall be considered by the Dean of Student Life in determining and imposing sanctions. The Dean of Student Life is not limited to sanctions recommended by members of the Student Conduct Board. Following the Student Conduct Board Hearing, the Student Conduct Board and the Dean of Student Life shall advise the Accused Student, group and/or organization (and a complaining student who believes s/he was the victim of another student's conduct) in writing of its determination and of the sanction(s) imposed, if any.

Appeals

1. A decision reached by the Student Conduct Board or a sanction imposed by the Dean of Student Life that is academic in nature may be appealed by the Accused Student(s) or Complainant(s) to the Provost and Senior Vice President within five (5) school days of the decision. Such appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Provost and Senior Vice President or his/her designee.
2. A decision reached by the Student Conduct Board or a sanction imposed by the Dean of Student Life that is not academic in nature may be appealed by the Accused Student(s) or Complainant(s) to the Vice President for Student Services within five (5) school days of the decision. Such appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Vice President for Student Services or his/her designee.
3. Except as required to explain the basis of new information, an appeal shall be limited to a review of the verbatim record of the Student Conduct Board Hearing and supporting documents for one or more of the following purposes:
  - a. To determine whether the Student Conduct Board Hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and information presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the complaining party a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present information that the Student Code was violated, and giving the Accused Student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a response to those allegations. Deviations from designated procedures will NOT be a basis for sustaining an appeal unless significant prejudice results.
  - b. To determine whether the decision reached regarding the Accused Student was based on substantial information, that is, whether there were facts in the case that, if believed by the fact finder, were sufficient to establish that a violation of the Student Code occurred.
  - c. To determine whether the sanction(s) imposed were appropriate for the violation of the Student Code which the student was found to have committed.
  - d. To consider new information, sufficient to alter a decision or other relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such information and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the original Student Conduct Board Hearing.
4. If an appeal is upheld by the Vice President to whom the Appeal is decided, the matter shall be returned to the original Student Conduct Board and Dean of Student Life for re-opening of Student Conduct Board Hearing to allow reconsideration of the original determination and/or sanction(s). If an appeal is not upheld, the matter shall be considered final and binding upon all involved.

Interpretation and Revision

1. Any question of interpretation or application of the Student Code shall be referred to the Dean of Student Life or his or her designee for final determination.
2. The Student Code shall be reviewed every three (3) years under the direction of the Dean of Student Life.
