Student Body President	Philip Moore	21lou	prmoor03@louisville.edu	Political Science and Economics	Helping Hands Serving Hearts, Campus YMCA, Student Orientation Staff, Sigma Chi Fraternity, McConnell Scholars Program, Harlan Scholars, Ekstrom Library Advisory Board Honors Scholars Program	With the move to the ACC, the University of Louisville is experiencing unprecedented growth and development, and I feel blessed to be a student during this time. However, as changes continue and the University of Louisville strives for a new identity as a "premier metropolitan research institution," its Student Government must adapt and change to stay effective as advocates and representatives of the Student Body. I have worked to develop a movement of diverse students with collaborative ideas to evolve Student Government into an effective body that understands and prioritizes student interests. Go to 21lou.org to join the movement.
Student Body President	Victoria Allen	Keep It Cardinal	vaalle02@louisville.edu	History, Political Science, Minor Women's Studies	Harlan Scholars Program, Woodford R. Porter Scholars, College Democrats, Chi Omega Sorority, McConnell Scholars Program	The University of Louisville is a stronghold of diversity and commitment to students. Each student is promised the opportunity to learn, grow, and flourish as a Cardinal. When I came to the University of Louisville, I was presented with that promise, and I will help to continue that legacy for students. As President, I will commit to the inclusivity of the Cardinal family, and maintaining the culture of opportunity that the University of Louisville has always afforded. It will be my honor and privilege to ensure that every undergraduate, graduate, and professional student is given the chance to take flight.
Student Body Executive Vice President	Caitlin Durgin	21lou	cddurg01@louisville.edu	Economics, Finance minor	President, Society of Porter Scholars, Resident Assistant, Miller Hall, AVIATOR, Admission Volunteer In Action To Recruit, 2014 Student Orientation Staff Member	I have been involved in many organizations at the University and also active and interested in community engagement and involvement. I want to continue the partnerships that have been created and focus on all of the power students have to initiate change with the assistance of an Executive Vice President with a like passion. Whether that change is with facilities, community engagement, training, all of the above or more; I will work with the student body and administrators to move into the 21st century and what students of today want from, and for the university.
Student Body Executive Vice President	Kevin Grout	Keep It Cardinal	kcgrout01@louisville.edu	Political Science and History	Cardinal Host Student Government Association Research Specialist Kappa Sigma Fraternity, McConnell Scholars Program, Harlan Scholars Program, Library Student Advisory Board, Cards In Action Student Advocate, TaskForce Freshman	The position of Student Body Executive Vice-President requires an effective leader with a defined mission. Because of my experiences in the community and at the University of Louisville, I know I am the best candidate for this role. Whether acting as President of the Student Senate or communicating the needs of students to University Athletics, I believe I would serve the Student Body well. I've worked within SGA to learn every aspect of the organization, and now I feel that I can lead it. With dedication, hard work, and collaborative efforts, I will be the best voice for students.
Student Body Academic Vice President	Alexander Stewart	21lou	amstew13@louisville.edu	Biology	Student Activities Board - Campus Life Chair Student Government Association - A&S Senator, Task Force for Tuition & Fee Setting, 21st Century General Education Committee 2015, Student Orientation Staff, Cards in Action Program, Cardinal Ambassador, Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity	U of L has given me many opportunities – both personal and professional (from late nights at Burger Boy to shadowing at Health Sciences). Through my experiences, I've been sculpted by this University to accumulate a liberal mind, giving me the ability to see many sides of things. I'm running for SGA Top Four because I want the opportunity to give back to something that gave me so much (vicarious gratification - what you put into something is what you get out of it). Through administrative ties and an already upward bounding projective, the foreseeable future for SGA is extraordinarily bright.
Student Body Academic Vice President	Katy Ashby	Keep It Cardinal	kathryn.ashby@louisville.edu	Mechanical Engineering	Speed School Student Council Vice-President SGA Development Board Cardinal Host Sigma Kappa Sorority James Graham Brown Fellow National Association of Engineering Student Councils Southeast Region Vice President of Administration	UofL's SGA is a student's best voice for academics. I am running for Student Body Academic Vice-President because I will be the best advocate for undergraduate, graduate, and professional students. I have learned the capabilities of SGA by serving on the Development and Executive boards. I will fight for positive reform in the General Education requirements to benefit all students. As we see a new academic building, I will ensure that students' interests are paramount. I am ready to represent all students to the Provost and Deans of UofL to make sure that our voices are heard.

Student Body Services Vice President	Aaron Vance	Keep It Cardinal	atvanc01@louisville.edu	Political Science	SGA Political Coordinator Director, Cards in Action Arts and Sciences Peer Advisor General Studies 101 Teaching Assistant Task Force Freshmen KY YMCA Youth Association Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity McConnell Scholars Program	As an experienced leader within the Student Government Association and the community, I hope to bring to the role of Services Vice President an understanding of policy, action, and implementation. Many issues are constantly relevant at the University of Louisville with regards to the service of our students; including safety and Eco-friendly initiatives, campus life, health services, and dining options. With previous experience I bring knowledge of how to navigate the policy process and the effects of government decisions upon the University and with this I bring the abilities and desire to act in the best interest of our students.
Student Body Services Vice President	Kaylee Brandt	21lou	kabran06@louisville.edu	Psychology	Delta Zeta Sorority Student Orientation Staff RaiseRED Dance Marathon Honors Program	I believe that the University of Louisville truly cares about the success and well-being of its students, and I have been blessed to be a product of that care. Effective student leaders must cultivate that care into student-friendly resources that transform the student experience. With your vote, my priorities are better dining services, a usable app for students, improved campus safety and a revamped student transportation model. Now, I am asking for your help to give back and represent your interests as Services Vice President. Go to 21lou.org to learn more!
A&S President	Andrew Monell	21lou	ajmone01@louisville.edu	Biology	RaiseRed Team Leader, Student Activities Board Campus Life, Sigma Alpha Epsilon	Throughout my time here at the University of Louisville, I have strived to be involved on campus through things such as SAB, RaiseRed and other RSOs. As a second year biology major, I have also had some experience in the Arts and Sciences department. This year, I am running for Arts and Sciences president because I want to redefine Arts and Sciences. I also want to create a more cohesive Arts and Science unit as well as create more unification within each respective discipline.
A&S President	Tess Bettler	Keep It Cardinal	tetbett01@louisville.edu	Political Science and French	Kappa Delta Sorority, French Club, Library Student Advisory Board, REACH tutor for French and Economics	I would be honored to be the next president of Arts and Sciences. This past year, I have been a senator for the College, representing the interests of my constituents and working with other A&S senators and council members to make Arts and Sciences a more open, inclusive college. I am running to continue that tradition. I believe A&S can do a lot for its students by helping them explore their interests and readying them for their future careers. If elected, I would work to meet the needs of my constituents and ensure that A&S is accessible to all.
A&S Vice President	Marisa Lind	21lou	m0lind03@louisville.edu	Political Science	Delta Zeta Sorority, Arts & Sciences Senator, Arts & Sciences Student Council, Co-Director of Freshman Arts & Sciences Council	I have been involved with Arts and Sciences council since I was a Freshman. I began as Vice President of Freshman Arts & Sciences, and I am now an Arts & Sciences Senator and council member. I have many ideas to move the University forward and want to continue working for the college to better the university that I love. I believe the slate of 21lou will greatly improve this University.
A&S Vice President	Emily Robbins	Keep It Cardinal	ecrobb02@louisville.edu	Political Science	Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority, Freshman Lead alum	Hello. My name is Emily Robbins and I am running for the College of Arts and Sciences Vice President. I am so excited to have this opportunity and would be honored to fill this position. As Arts and Sciences Vice President I would focus on meeting students individual needs to help them feel connected to the college as a whole. I am confident that by reaching each student and department I can better our college and university.
A&S Senator	Anna Cecile Pepper	21lou	acpepp01@louisville.edu	Political Science	McConnell Scholars Program, Kappa Delta Sorority, Student Orientation Staff, SAB Diversity Committee, and Task Force Freshman	Hello, my name is Anna Cecile Pepper, and I'm running for College of Arts and Sciences Senator! A&S is the largest college at the University of Louisville and represents so much diversity in both its degrees and in its students. I want to help A&S realize its full potential for campus involvement and go above and beyond in meeting the needs of its students and faculty. I would be honored to represent this school and this student body as a Senator. Go Cards!
A&S Senator	Jaclyn Schmitt	21lou	jaschm09@louisville.edu	Biology	Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Epsilon Delta Honor Society, Freshman A&S Student Council, Gamma Chi Recruitment Counselor, GAMMA	I am excited to be running for College Student Senator because I feel that I have a lot to offer this University. I am a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, and I currently serve as our chapters Panhellenic Delegate. I also am a member of the Pre-Health Honor Society Alpha Epsilon Delta. I was also involved in Freshman A&S Student Council. I believe that my involvement in these activities has given me the tools I need to run for Senator. I hope to improve the College of A&S and have a positive impact at UofL.

A&S Senator	Jake Fooks	21lou	wjfook01@louisville.edu	Biology	Cards in Action, Task Force Freshmen, Pre-Dental society	I'm running for Arts and Sciences College Senator because I believe I accurately represent the voice of the college and I believe I can have a positive influence on all of its students. I believe that by listening to the opinions of Arts and Sciences students and coupling them with some of my existing goals for the position, I'll be able to make changes in the college that will give all those associated with it opportunities to get the most out of their College experience.
A&S Senator	Karen Udoh	Keep It Cardinal	ktudoh01@louisville.edu	Biology		If elected to the University of Louisville Senate, I will be fully committed to my responsibilities and make sure that every students' voices are heard. I want to create a positive difference in the UofL community by improving academic advising and the dining services. Being a part of Task Force Freshmen has given me the knowledge to learn how our student government works and to see where there needs to be improvement. We all may have different beliefs and come from a variety of backgrounds, but it should not stop us from making UofL the best that it can be.
A&S Senator	Induja Nimma	21lou	irnimm01@louisville.edu	Biology and Spanish Minor	Honor's Scholar, Freshmen LEAD, SAB Diversity Committee, Indian Student Association, Phi Delta Epsilon Medical Fraternity College Mentors	As a freshman in the Arts & Sciences School, I look forward to bringing a fresh outlook to SGA. I want to diversify our Student Government and be a voice of the underrepresented student body population. Some of the issues I would like to address include how exploratory majors are restricted when enrolling into introductory courses, helping students find internships and research opportunities to enrich their educational experiences, dealing with our hefty meal plans, and many others. The A&S School deserves to have a say and I believe that I will be the best senate representative for you.
A&S Senator	Andrew Jones	21lou	acjone08@louisville.edu	Biology	Executive Council member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, NSCS Scholar, GEMS program	Hello everyone! My name is Andrew Jones and I am a Sophomore biology major here at U of L. I am originally from Bardstown, Kentucky and attended Bethlehem High School. Outside of school I am a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, a resident assistant at Unitas, an NSCS scholar, and part of the GEMS program. I am very excited to be running for an A&S senator position and eager to help represent the rest of the student body!
A&S Senator	Kevin Jacob	Keep It Cardinal	k0jaco02@louisville.edu	Biology	Freshman LEAD Cards for Kids (Co-President) Kappa Sigma Fraternity ELSB	I am running to create and nurture ties between local business and laboratories and the University of Louisville for students in the College of Arts and Sciences. A strong voice in the Senate that promotes these types of bonds between students and the Louisville community is exactly what we need to get a leg up in the competitive job market and graduate school applications. I believe that the first step to getting these invaluable opportunities is to actively fight for funding to have more career fairs and internship fairs geared towards Arts and Sciences majors.
A&S Senator	Lauren Greenwell	Keep It Cardinal	ldgree05@louisville.edu	Political Science and English	Student Government Association, Resident Student Association, Arts and Sciences Council, Chi Omega Fraternity, Panhellenic Council, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Helping Hands Serving Hearts	I would love to be considered for re-election of being a Senator under the College of Arts and Sciences because I want to focus on creating more resolutions for the Senate to make changes for students on campus. I want to make myself available to all students and to spread more awareness about the amazing things happening within the College of Arts and Sciences. As a Senator for the 2014-2015 school year I have much experience as to what happens in Senate and I also understand what is expected of a Senator. Go Cards!
A&S Senator	Ocey Holland	Keep It Cardinal	olholl01@louisville.edu	Biology	Task Force Freshman, Future Educators Association, Student Orientation Staff, McConnell Scholar Program	I am a proven leader by performance and a wiser one by experience. My most recent position as the national president of the Future Educators Association has taught me a great deal about bringing structure and innovation to an organization. I am running for Arts and Sciences Senate because I believe there is still a need for students to have their concerns addressed. I hope you will give me the opportunity to make the College of Arts and Sciences a system that takes suggestions and provides results.
A&S Senator	Preston Roberson	21lou	pwrobe04@louisville.edu	Justice Administration	Associate Director for the Task Force Freshmen program Engage Lead Serve Board	Hey Y'all! My name is Preston Roberson and I am currently the Associate Director for the Task Force Freshmen Program and a member of the Engage Lead Serve Board (ELSB) here at UofL. I am a sophomore Justice Administration major with a Social Change minor. I was born and raised in Edgewood, Kentucky. The cardinal spirit has been in my blood since 1926, when my grandfather enrolled in UofL. I was born to love UofL and I am willing to do whatever I can to give back to this amazing university, which is why I am running for A&S senator. As a senator I can not only help UofL improve as a whole, but also improve my individual college as well.

A&S Senator	Ronica Hutchison	Keep It Cardinal	rfhutc02@louisville.edu	Political Science	Kappa Delta Sorority, Cards in Action, Freshman LEAD	Hello, my name is Ronica Hutchison and I am running for Arts and Science's Senator. My purpose for running is to serve as a liaison between students, faculty and administration. As Arts and Sciences' senator, I will strive each and every day to improve overall campus life, maintain the prestige of a degree from the University of Louisville for all students who attend, as well as uphold a strong relationship and hold influence with both the Administration and the Student Body. I will act to ensure that tuition dollars are put to good use and all voices are heard.
A&S Senator	Rebecca Waller	Keep It Cardinal	rewall02@louisville.edu	Communications	Pi Beta Phi, Fraternity for Women raiseRED, UofL Dance Marathon Hillel: The Foundation for Jewish Campus Life
A&S Senator	Tori Russell	Keep It Cardinal	vmruss01@louisville.edu	Philosophy	UofL Student Orientation Staff Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women Panhellenic Recruitment Counselor	I am running for this SGA Senate position because I would like to make a difference within the College of Arts and Sciences. I believe that my experience in leadership and mentoring roles like Student Orientation Staff and Gamma Chi allows me to have a unique insight into what the student body expects and would want from SGA. I am dedicated to doing what I can to provide for students' wants and needs.
A&S Senator	Kyle Hornback	Keep It Cardinal	knhorn03@louisville.edu	Political Science	Cards in Action, Task Force Freshman, Louisville Metro Police Youth Advisory Committee, 2015 Kentucky Derby Princess	I am passionate not only about student involvement and advocacy, but also about true sincerity. I believe that those who represent the Student Body should be zealous about the issues and be genuine when approaching them. I am passionate about academics and I believe that the students at our University deserve a quality education and to be given the necessary tools to succeed. Furthermore, I believe in the responsibility that all students carry to ensure they take their education seriously and graduate in a timely manner. Education is a joint activity between the University and Students; together we will succeed!
A&S Senator	Brittany Chouhan		blchou01@louisville.edu	Political Science	Alpha Omicron Pi (AOII) Sister, Student Organization for Alumni Relations (SOAR) Membership & Recruitment Chair, Fryberger Board-Sponsorship Co-Chair & Alumni Liaison	I want to serve as an A&S Senator because I want to be involved with what changes are made for the university. I want to serve my fellow classmates and help them voice what they want not through surveys but also in person and word of mouth. In high school, I served on SGA, FBLA, FCA, SADD and I took the initiative my senior year to start a senior newsletter. In past years of high school and in college, I've helped with planning events and work hard to get everything I need to accomplish.
A&S Senator	Vishnu Tirumala	21lou	v0tiru01@louisville.edu	Philosophy and Political Science	Phi Delta Theta, Public Relations and IFC Freshman A&S Council, Vice President Taskforce Freshman Cards in Action Indian Student Association	Hello! My name is Vishnu Tirumala and I'm running to be an A&S Senator. I've spent the past several months as Vice President of A&S Freshman Council so I'm uniquely prepared to move up to the big council. I'm also a member of Taskforce Freshman, where I've been working with SGA Communications. I'm excited to continue my work in making Arts and Sciences great as a Senator.
A&S Senator	Cash Collins	Keep It Cardinal	cccoll05@louisville.edu	Political Science	I am involved in the Engage, Lead, Serve Board as the Associate Director of the Training and Leadership committee. I am a Harlan Scholar, a Student Orientation Staff member, and a member of Greek Life.	I believe civic engagement is an important aspect of a successful life. To actively work toward improving and immersing oneself in an environment is to be admired and strived for. To sit idly by while others make decisions that affect the entire student body is unacceptable to me. The student voice is one that is equally as important as that of any other within this great university. To be a part of this voice, to sing and champion our interests: this is why I am running for Arts & Sciences Senator.
A&S Senator	Chase Barnett	21lou	cgbarn02@louisville.edu	Justice Administration	Greek Life, Justice Administration Club, Student Orientation Staff, Resident Assistant, Intramurals, & ULPD Student Assistant	Starting my journey at the University of Louisville I was excited, eager, and hopeful for an amazing four years of college. What I have experienced has been so much more. I developed a pride and love for the University, as well as helping students grow, develop, and be successful here. College has truly been wonderful to me, I want to continue to serve other students and help to make their experience here as meaningful and fulfilled as mine has been. We all have a voice and I want to be in a position to help others voices be heard.

Education President	Jordan Weathers	21lou	jeweato1@louisville.edu	Public Health Education	Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. Collegiate 100, Resident Assistant for ULH Inc, T.R.I.O	I am running for this position to make a difference for the UofL campus. I want people to know and love their representative. I want to give students a better voice
Education President	Abigail Vogel	Keep It Cardinal	asvoqe02@louisville.edu	Elementary Education	Cardinal Ambassador Kappa Delta SGA (for 2014-2015 school year)	I served on SGA last year as the College of Education and Human Development's Vice President. It has been a year of growth and learning, and is the reason I am running to be the college's President. I am extremely passionate about the betterment of not only my college but also the University as a whole. I have plans to work closely with education majors and human development majors to improve our college and plan to work just as closely with senate as a whole to make important decisions for The University of Louisville.
Education Vice President	Christina Franck	Keep It Cardinal	cmfran10@louisville.edu	Sports Administration	UofLAthletic Department Student Manager (Field Hockey), Youth Lacrosse Volunteer, Retreat Director (Assumption High School), Kappa Delta Sorority	I am running for College of Education Vice President because I believe it would be a honor and a privilege to represent the SPAD department,the College of Education and University of Louisville. I plan to work hard with all three branches of the College of Education to help us improve into a program that will better our University and our community. Go Cards!
Education Vice President	Allison King	21lou	avking02@louisville.edu	Exercise Science	Motocross, Panhellenic VP of Recruitment, Zeta Tau Alpha	Growing up participating and holding office in many organizations, I know how important it is to have a presence among members. I intend to be a presence where there has previously been none, and to give students options that they have previously not been able to ask for.
Education Senator	Conor Shea	Keep It Cardinal	cfshea02@louisville.edu	Sports Administration	UofL Student Orientation Staff (SOS), Member of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity	My name is Conor Shea and I am running for Senator in the College of Education. My mission is to give the students in the College of Education, as well as the rest of the University, a strong voice in the senate, someone they can come to, and someone they can depend on. I have served on the Executive and Judicial boards of my fraternity, as well as coached a championship club swim team. I am an effective leader and a friend to all, and I will do whatever it takes to make sure our voices are heard.
Education Senator	Keturah Smith	21lou	kasmit19@louisville.edu	Secondary Education	Student Orientation Staff, Student Organization of Alumni Relations, University of Louisville Phonathon, Shades of Movement dance group, Volunteer at Newburg Middle School, UofLAthletics Sports Information Volunteer
Education Senator	Tori Nelson	Keep It Cardinal	tenels02@louisville.edu	Health and Human Performance: Exercise Science	Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Health and Human Performance Club	Hello, my name is Tori Nelson and I am running for College of Education Senator.As a senator, I would strive to make the College of Education a welcoming environment to all concentrations within. Being a non-education in the college I understand how easy it is to get lost in translation. I would also work diligently to make the college more competitive on campus. I would be proud to take on this responsibility and make the cardinal community proud.
Education Senator	Deirdra Beck	21lou	dlback@louisville.edu	Health and Human Performance: Public Health Education	Campus Crusade for Christ, Black Diamond Choir, and Baptist Campus Ministries.	Hello! My name is Deirdra Beck and I am very excited to be a part of the 21lou team! I am from Franklin, Kentucky and I graduated from Franklin-Simpson High School. While in high school I held different leadership positions in the student council and other organizations and I plan to further expand on those skills by representing students here on campus. I have great ideas and plans to further advance the College of Education and if elected I will do everything in my power to see to it that the students of the College of Education are heard.

Music President	Emma Powers	21lou	ecpowe02@louisville.edu	Music Therapy	Cardinal Ambassador, School of Music Student Ambassador, Alpha Omicron Pi Chapter President	Hello! My name is Emma Powers, and I am a music therapy student at the University of Louisville. I have enjoyed impacting the university by working as a Cardinal Ambassador and leading my sorority as chapter president. The opportunity to better influence campus life through student government is very exciting for me. I believe that 21lou will work hard to fix issues that students are facing in this modern, fast-paced age, and I am honored and excited to be a part of it.
Music President	Erica Rust	Keep It Cardinal	edrusr01@louisville.edu	Vocal Performance	Chi Omega, Fryberger Song Chair, Choir, GAMMA, Baptist Campus Ministries, CAPS Leader	I've had previous student government roles and I've also been a CAPS Leader for the School of Music. These roles have enhanced my leadership abilities. As a CAPS Leader, I have established many important relationships with underclassmen whom I see everyday. I sincerely desire to be President of the School of Music. I plan to continue fanning the flame for unity, bringing more awareness to the School of Music throughout our entire university. Go Cards!
Music Vice President	Garrett Weeks	21lou	gdweek01@louisville.edu	Music Therapy	Cardinal Marching Band Leadership, Cardinal Music Therapy Organization President, Phi Mu Alpha Member, Praise Band Leader at Covenant UMC, Councilor at Camp Loucon	I am running for this position so that we can improve the college experience for our students. This will be through the use of my time and services to help to voice the opinion of the student body in order to improve our facilities. My experience at the University has been a great one, but I would love to help to improve upon mine for the future students of our school. I have been in leadership positions before and believe that I could help get the recognition that our school of music deserves.
Music Vice President	Tera Pierce	Keep It Cardinal	tlpier02@louisville.edu	Music	Student Activities Board (Concert Vice Chair) Collegiate Chorale Cardinal Singers Sigma Kappa Sorority	I am running for School of Music Vice President because I want to make a difference for music students. I believe it is important for music students to have a supportive voice in the Student Government Association. There are many new ideas that I hope to initiate in order to make the School of Music as comfortable and effective for learning as possible. As a third-year music student, involved in many School of Music extracurricular activities, I feel that I have the experience necessary to make a positive impact for my peers and my school.
