

Student Government Association

August 20, 2010

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for picking up an application and taking the first step in becoming an active student leader at USI! There are several positions that are currently unfilled within the Student Government Association General Assembly and University Court. Please fill out the attached application by submitting all requested information and by answering the listed questions. Incomplete applications will not be processed. After completion, please return the application to Mary Alice Weigand in the Dean of Students Office, located in the University Center (UC 007). All applicants will receive an e-mail from Executive Vice President Joseph Giannini, where an informal interview will be scheduled. After the interview, your application will be submitted to the General Assembly for approval.

Once again, thank you for showing an interest in your Student Government Association! Also, SGA meets every Thursday at 4:30 p.m. in LA 1003. If you have any questions please feel free to e-mail me at sga@usi.edu.

Sincerely,

Hope Fussner
President
Student Government Association
