CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH

IRVIN HAKKIM HURST MEMORIAL AWARD

All award and scholarship applications are due in the Center for Scholarship Information (Located in the University Student Union, Room 238) by 4:00 pm on March 22nd, 2012. Postmarks will not be accepted.

This award is named in honor of Irvin Hakim Hurst, an African-American student who was shot during the Civil Rights Era. His tragic passing hit a cord in the underrepresented students at the time and they lobbied to create this award to honor his memory. The award recognizes a graduating senior or graduate student who represents the concerns of minority students, promotes a non-racist environment, and encourages unity on- and off-campus.

NOTE: These are AWARDS and do NOT have MONEY associated with them. You may apply for all awards and scholarships but are only eligible to receive ONE award and ONE scholarship.
