SPONSORED BY: Keegan Schulz, Senator College of Natural Sciences; Tommy Taylor, Senator College of Agricultural Sciences; Samantha Raso, Director of Diversity and Outreach; Jordan Von Bokern, Director of Finance; Chase Eckerdt, Director of Community Affairs; Tim Sellers, Controller

WRITTEN BY: Taylor Jackson, Scott Hanley, Tyler Witter

ENDORSED BY: Cooper Anderson, ASCSU President

WHEREAS: Due to recent confusion over the definition of an abstention, the bylaws require clarification; and,

WHEREAS: Abstentions should be considered as removal of oneself from a vote and endorsing neither side; and,

WHEREAS: The voter relinquishes their rights and denies the rights of their constituents to representation by a vote of abstention; and,

WHEREAS: The outcome of a vote should be determined by those actually taking a stance on the issue, not those removing themselves from the vote; and,

WHEREAS: The national and state governments do not use abstentions.

THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED

That Article IV, Section N of the Senate Bylaws be amended to state,

“All bills and resolutions, unless otherwise specified in the Constitution or these bylaws, shall require a single majority vote for passage, where the majority is of the present voting membership excluding abstentions.”
